

Explain any one Software management tool with following considerations:

How does it work?

What kind of teams and businesses benefit from this software?

Who on the team typically uses this tool?

How does this software help us collaborate and communicate better?

What are the top three benefits for a team?